

State Proclamations

National Water Safety Month has the opportunity to make all Americans more “water aware.” We encourage you to obtain local proclamations for your city, township, military installation, community association, etc. During the month of May, states submit their proclamation forms. Download the customizable proclamation template here.