Organization Type Definitions

Business-to-Business Firms (Domestic & International)

- Distributor Firms whose major (70%) business is the wholesaling of goods manufactured by others. No single customer shall constitute 50% or more of the firm's sales. *Distributors above 20 million use the following formula to calculate dues: Base dues of $5,500 plus $1,000 per 10 million in revenue above 20 million ($$5,500 + (\text{U.S. Sales} - 20\text{M})/10\text{M} \times 1000$)
- Manufacturer Firms manufacturing or fabricating products or components, including complete swimming pool units, spas, and hot tub units. *Manufacturers above 50 million use the following formula to calculate dues: Base dues of $20,000 plus $1,000 per 10 million in revenue above 50 million ($$20,000 + (\text{U.S. Sales} - 50\text{M})/10\text{M} \times 1000$)
- Manufacturers' Agent A firm or individual representing two or more different manufacturers and brands (any size firm).

Business-to-Consumer Firms

- Builder/Installer Firms that build, install, and renovate swimming pools, spas, hot tubs, and water features.
- Retail Store Firms that operate a retail store open to the public offering a variety of industry products, spanning more than one manufacturers' brand(s).
- Service Company Firms that service and maintain swimming pools, spas, hot tubs, water features.
- Single-Person Service Company Person servicing and maintaining swimming pools, spas, hot tubs, water features.
- Professional Pool Management Firm or individual providing professional management services for public and semi-public swimming pools, spas, hot tubs, and water features.
- Commercial Facility An entity operating a single commercial or semi-public swimming pool, spa, or hot tub facility.

Other Members

- Allied Supplier Manufacturers and distributors not directly related to the manufacture or operation of pools, spas, or hot tubs, but more related to the backyard experience.
- Professional Affiliate Firms or individuals that provide professional services. Includes consultants in designing, building, and operation, architects, landscapers, finance and lending firms, advertising, PR, and insurance agencies/agents.
- Associate Not-for-profit individuals and organizations, government entities, trade or professional associations, research or academic institutions.
- Retiree Member not generating any income from the industry. Former dues-paying member.

PHTA Code of Ethics (read below, and sign on front)

All members of The Pool & Hot Tub Alliance agree to be dedicated to and to comply with the following ethical principles and policies:

- To contribute to the health, safety and welfare of the public in the design, manufacture, installation, maintenance and operation of swimming pools, spas and hot tubs by complying with all applicable laws, ordinances or regulations and refraining from engaging in fraudulent or deceptive acts or practices.
- To hold all necessary federal, state and local licenses, registrations and permits.
- To hold legally required liability insurance, workers' compensation insurance, and bonding.
- To respect and not infringe upon the intellectual property rights of others and to refrain from using the property of others without their prior, written consent.
- To advertise products, services and prices truthfully and consistently with all federal, state and local advertising practices requirements.
- To establish prices in a manner that does not involve collusion with a competitor and to clearly communicate such prices to potential customers or clients prior to providing such products or services.
- To provide written sales agreements when such are requested by customers or required by law.
- To comply with the terms of all agreements, oral or written, regarding the provision of products or services.
- To respond to any consumer complaints made to any governmental authority, Better Business Bureau or equivalent nongovernmental authority.
- To exclude from company ownership or senior management any person or entity who or which, within the past three (3) years, has been convicted of or pleaded no contest (or its equivalent) to any felony or other crime involving business or financial practices.
- To use the PHTA name, logo and other intellectual property only when and as permitted by PHTA, and to cease all such use upon suspension from or termination of membership in PHTA.
- To file a complaint with PHTA regarding a potential violation of this Code of Ethics only when in possession of credible evidence of such potential violation.
- To cooperate fully with any PHTA investigation of a potential violation of this Code of Ethics.
- To encourage utilization of PHTA educational offerings as a means of enhancing the professional skills and business integrity of PHTA members and their employees.
